Global Players Coaching

Darrell Belonio
Heinrich-Brockmann-Straße 58
26131 Oldenburg

This is to certify that Darrell Belonio, from Global Players Coaching has been considered as a top English language institution.

We have entrusted Darrell Belonio in serving our needs from all levels, with various kinds of English programs designed specifically for each person's requirements. We have had the pleasure of attending his classes over the past two years.

Darrell's success appears to derive from his extensive experience in dealing with higher-level members of the business community in Oldenburg and surrounding areas. Since he deals almost exclusively with middle and upper level professionals, he has developed the ability to devise programs appropriate for professionals.

It is thus my pleasure to recommend Darrell Belonio and his team from Global Players Coaching to any organization needing similar training for their senior level people.

All the best for your future
